A US source from Bern in June 1945, described Max MIXIMOS as a Jewish businessman at present in Switzerland, who once lived in Soviet Russia where he has good relations. Source reports he will go there in June for short stay, and that "he is ready to do his utmost to establish relations between Soviet Govt. and 'Congress.'" Report further states, "if authorized, we intend to ask him to negotiate competent authorities with view to dispatch WJC (World Jewish Congress) delegate to Moscow with aim to reach understanding Jewish reconstruction and rehabilitation in territories under Soviet occupation and possibly creating a permanent representation in Moscow."
